A pretty affair of last week was the "kitchen party" given at Mrs. John H. Wicker's in Boundary street. It lasted from 5 to 6:30. The "Wear Ever" boys were there and gave a complete demonstration of the aluminum utensils. After the demonstration luncheon was served. The evening went off well despite the threatening attitude of the elements.

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edward Fulenwider, pastor.) Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran church of the Redeemer next Sunday, 10:15 a. m. Sunday School; 11:15 a. m., the hour of worship. The sermon will be preached by Rev. P. E. Monroe, President of the Summerland college. 5:00 p. m. The Junior Workers will have a special service. All the mothers and women of the congregation are invited to attend the service. Come and worship with us.

THIS WOULD ALSO APPLY TO SOUTH CAROLINA.

This year a certain railroad sent a farmers' special into Mississippi. It drew great crowds and everything went well until the educators struck a town about half way down the State. At that meeting the speaker was finishing with great eloquence. He declared that Mississippi could produce everything its people wanted. Why should they send to other States for products which they could raise themselves?

In mentioning these products he reached this climax: "Why send to Missouri for your mules? Why doesn't Mississippi raise her own mules?"

"Professor," drawled a thin, piercing voice from the middle of the audience, "kin I interrupt you a second?"

"Certainly, sir."

"I'd like to ask you a question. 'I shall be very glad to answer it if I am able,' said the expert."

"Well, sir," continued the thin voice slowly and solemnly, "how the thunder kin Mississippi raise her own mules when all her jackasses are in the legislature?"—Country Gentleman.

Mr. H. Pet Baker and Mr. Malcom Oxner will open a garage and general repair shop near the railroad on West Friend street. They expect to open on or about the first of August.

Mr. Osborne Wells.

Another of the landmarks of Newberry has passed to the great beyond. Another Confederate veteran has gone to join his comrades on the other shore. Mr. Osborne Wells died at his home in Newberry on Wednesday morning, July 19.

He was the son of James and Mary St. Munday Wells and was born in Lincoln County, N. C., January 20, 1831. He was therefore in his 86th year at the time of his death.

Mr. Wells came to Newberry in 1854 and one 2, 1864, was married to Miss Cornelia Thompson Schumpert, daughter of Capt. Jacob Schumpert of the county and a sister of the late Col. O. L. Schumpert.

Mr. Wells was a contractor and builder and a good one and was the builder of many of the houses in Newberry. He built the first building for the Newberry college and the Newberry Opera house.

Mr. Wells enlisted in the war between the sections at the beginning of hostilities and was a member of Co. D., McLaws brigade, Longstreet's corps, and was first wounded in June, 1862, in the skirmishes around Richmond. In September following he received the wound in the face the marks of which he bore as long as he lived. After this he was sent home and was in the commissary department at Newberry and one of the things he did was to make wool hats for the soldiers. There are those living who remember the hat factory.

He is survived by his wife and six children all of whom were present except Mrs. C. L. Trabert of California who was here on a visit during the summer and had only left about two weeks ago and Mr. T. M. Wells who lives in Iowa. Dr. Amos S. Wells of Minneapolis is here on a visit. Mrs. J. L. Welling of Darlington is also here. The other children, Mr. H. B. Wells and Mrs. W. T. Harrell live in Newberry.

Mr. Wells is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Alexander who lives in Lincoln, N. C.

Funeral service was held at the residence Thursday morning and interment in Rosemont immediately after. The service was conducted by Rev. E. Fulenwider. The pall bearers were: Jos. H. Hunter, C. J. Purcell, Geo. B. Cromer, P. C. Gaillard, W. A. Hill, J. T. Mayes.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION WILL HOLD EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission will hold an examination for stenographer and typewriter (male and female) August 8, 1916, to fill seventeen existing vacancies in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, and South Carolina, and other vacancies as they may occur. Entrance salaries from $900 to $1,080. Age, 18 years or over.

Application blanks and full information can be obtained by applying to Secretary, Local Civil Service Board, your city, or the Secretary, Fifth Civil Service District, Atlanta, Ga.

This is an excellent opportunity for competent stenographers and typewriters to secure government positions.

BARBECUE AT ST PAULS

The barbecue at St. Pauls last Saturday was not as largely attended as had been anticipated on account of the continual rainfall throughout the day. Lieut. Governor A. J. Betha was present, however, in spite of the inclement weather.

Notwithstanding the rains the people of the community turned out in the afternoon and bought up the meat and hash. The barbecue was made for the benefit of the church.

SOCIETY.

On Monday evening a reception was given at Holland Hall in compliment to the Sunday School teachers attending the Lutheran Normal. Besides the teachers quite a number of outsiders were present and after a happy social hour a delightful ice course was served.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the masquerade party, given by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Wicker at their home in Langford street. The guests were met by a member of the "national guard" and were presented by him to the host and hostess. Then with many pretty and unique costumes but the judges, who were Mesdames F. E. Dibble, E. M. Tvals, Sr. and Miss Margaret Speaks, of Kinards, awarded Miss Corrie Lee Havird, representing Minnehaha, first prize and Mr. Herman Langford, a black-faced comedian, booby. Delightful punch was served during the evening by Misses Colie Blease and Louise Wicker and late in the evening a delicious ice course was served to about a hundred guests. Among the masked guests were Red-Riding Hood, Little Willie, Golden Locks, Martha Washington, Goddess of Liberty, Indians, Cow boys, Soldiers, Red-Cross nurses, Colonial, dames and others. One of the most original costumes was worn by the hostess, representing the sun-flower.

Mrs. A. T. Brown was the charming hostess on Wednesday morning at a Rook party given in compliment to her guests, the Misses Griffin, of Williamson. The members of the young matrons club were present and quite a number of others, making seven tables of players. After many interesting games, the hostess served a delightful ice course.

Mrs. L. W. Floyd was hostess Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock to the members of the Civic association, at her home in Calhoun street. Fourteen members were present and during the afternoon quite a number of interesting subjects were discussed. The "Free Ordinance" was the most important, this consisting of two parts, 1. No one shall be allowed to hitch horses to the trees on the streets, 2. No one shall be allowed to cut the trees. The possibility of the city council electing a "Tree Warden" was also discussed. After the business meeting a delightful ice course was served.

Mrs. R. D. Smith, Jr. was the hostess Wednesday evening at a Rook party given in honor of her sister, Miss Blanche Smith, of Kinards. After the games a delightful ice course was served by the hostess. Those present were: Misses Jean Nell, and Mary Hart Griffin, Julia Johnston, Mary Reid. Messrs. Stuck, Barre, Spearman, Wallace Botes and Mr. and Mrs. James Smith.

Mahon-Simons.

Miss Mary Eliza Mahon, formerly of Newberry, but recently of New York and William Baynard Simons, Jr., of Charleston were married at noon yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kohn in Laurel Street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. A. McCullough. Only a few intimate friends were present.

Mrs. Simons is an attractive young woman and has made many friends during her brief stay in Columbia. Mr. Simons has for a number of years held a position with the Portland Cement company of Charleston where the young couple will make their home.—The State, 18.

The Country Newspaper.

No higher tribute to the country newspaper has ever been paid than the following. It was written by William Allen White, editor of the Emporia, Kan., Gazette, for Harper's Magazine:

"Our papers, our little country papers, seem drab and miserably provincial to strangers, yet we who read them read in their lines the sweet, intimate story of life. And all these touches of nature make us wondrous kind. It is the country newspaper, bringing together daily threads of the town's life, weaving them into something rich and strange and setting the pattern it weaves, directing the loom and giving the cloth its color by mixing the lives of all people in its color pot—it is this country newspaper that reveals us to ourselves, that keeps our country hearts quick, and our country minds open, and our country faith strong."
